Outing ideas

Situated between the Vosges and Alsace, the Bruche valley is like an open book of history and nature. With museums, natural sites and cultural heritage to explore, let us surprise you!

Insiders' tips!

- The Guest Card \(Carte d'hôte\): The Bruche Valley guest card gives you access to a wide range of benefits offered by our partner sites! Valid for anyone aged 18+ staying in the Bruche Valley for more than one night, it is given to you free of charge upon arrival at your accommodation.
- 2-in-1 ticket \(Billet Duo\): This combined ticket allows you to visit the Alsace-Moselle Memorial and the European Centre for Resistance Members/former Natzweiler-Struthof concentration camp at a reduced price. From the date of your visit to the first site, you have one year in which to visit the other. Available exclusively at the Bruche valley tourist office.

Delicious moments – with local and seasonal produce

Traditional cuisine or gourmet restaurants, slow food, farm food at its best... The Bruche valley has so much to offer – take a seat and enjoy!

- Restaurants: Whether in summer in the shade of a lime tree or in winter by the fireplace... Let yourself be seduced by the creativity and expertise of our chefs.
- Farm inns: Take a well-earned break halfway through your hike! A savoury meal, straight from the field to your plate, awaits you in our farm inns.
- Local produce: Weekly farmers' markets, short food supply chains, producers' shops, farm inns – these are the promise of sustainable consumption of quality seasonal produce and the chance to meet producers with real expertise.

A holiday that is just like you ...

For history lovers

- Alsace-Moselle Memorial: An amazing visual journey through regional and European history from 1870 until today.

- Former Natzweiler-Struthof concentration camp: The former camp and the European Centre for Resistance Fighters are the only reminders in France of Nazi death and forced labour policy.
- Oberlin Museum: Learning is child's play. Touch, smell and explore the wonderful world of the first educational programme set up in France in 1769. For kids and grown-ups!
- Fort de Mutzig: A masterpiece of military architecture. Never taken, just tested once, the 'Fort de Mutzig' is the first and probably the largest of all fortresses ever built in Europe in the last century.

For fans of the outdoors

- Champ du Feu plateau: Lying at 1100 meters, this is where nature is at its best, well preserved and protected and inspiring throughout the year.
- The Donon: Climb up the slopes to the summit of this sacred and mythical mountain and enjoy a stunning view over the plains of Alsace and the famous 'blue line' of the Vosges mountains.
- The ruins of Salm castle, Chateau de la Roche
- Scenic mountain villages
